Sixteen new members were taken in during the year.

A donation of $250 was received of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Cooke. This makes them life members of the Kindergarten association.

Miss Buckley, the new director of the Kindergarten at Palama chapel, will arrive in Honolulu on the next Australia. She is experienced in Kindergarten work and comes from Maryland with the highest recommendations. Everything is in readiness for the opening of the school upon the arrival of Miss Buckley. Mrs. Irwin reported that the school will open with a full number of pupils.

Some time ago the ladies interested in Kindergarten work in Honolulu sent a memorial to Minister of the Interior King, requesting that he set aside some reclaimed government lands on Nuuanu street for a city park. A reply from the Minister was read this morning in which he stated that it was the intention of the department to take the matter up for consideration as soon as possible.

Reports were received from the various committees. From these it is learned that the various kindergarten schools are accomplishing good work. The association was never in a more flourishing condition.

Miss Lawrence, the director of the training classes, made a very interesting report to the Board. She explained the program of the daily work of her classes.

THE EX-QUEEN LEAVES

LILUOKALANI A DEPARTING PASSENGER PER CHINA.

Arranged Very Quietly—No Demonstration—Called on the President—A Foreign Office Passport.

Liliuokalani sailed by the steamer China this morning for a visit to America and perhaps Europe. She will stop in San Francisco, will go to Boston, likely Washington and will proceed, if possible, to England, where she will visit Kaulani and the family of A. S. Cleghorn.

The ex-Queen's departure was unexpected about town. Only a few members of the Hui Aloha Aina and a few friends were at the steamer to see her off. She arrived in a carriage at 10 o'clock. Joseph O. Carter offered his arm and assisted her up the gangway. On deck she was met by Samuel Parker and other friends. The steamer sailed a few minutes later. She remained on deck until the vessel turned into the channel, bowing adieus to friends as she recognized them on the wharf.

When the ex-Queen arrived at the dock she was veiled, but uncovered her face upon leaving her carriage. She was attired in a neat black dress, and carried a large bouquet of pink carnations. Standing by the gangway were a half dozen friends, to whom she nodded. Robert W. Wilcox was one of the number and came in for an extra smile.

Liliuokalani's trip was planned some months ago. She called upon President and Mrs. Dole at their Emma street home this morning and informed them of her proposed trip abroad. She stated that she would visit relatives of her late husband at Boston and would go to Europe if she was able to arrange the voyage. She was going for pleasure and for the benefit of her health. From both President and Mrs. Dole she received expressions of hope that her tour would be a most pleasant one.

A request was made through her secretary for a Foreign Office passport. This was granted. The document was made out and delivered to her by Secretary Potter on board the China this morning.

On her trip the ex-Queen is accompanied by her private secretary, Joe Heleluhe, and Mrs. Kia Nahaolelua, her chief attendant.

Will the ex-Queen go to Washington? A person close to her says that she will. There is also a report about town that she will meet Kaulani there, and that the two ladies will seek an audience with President Cleveland in their behalf. In view of past circumstances with respect to Kaulani and her own abdication the role accredited to her is not believed as probable. A report that she has a prearrangement to meet Mr. Cleveland and that Mr. Blount will be a party to the conference is discredited except perhaps by a few natives.

The Government band was ordered down to play at the wharf as a compliment to the distinguished passenger, but could not be gotten together in time.

ROAD WRECK.

A double seated surrey belonging to Hon. Cecil Brown was demolished last evening in a collision on Alakea street. Jack Gibson was driving the team and was in post haste for the opera house, the play being over. As he rounded the Y. M. C. A. corner and started down Alakea he came in contact with a hack, with a Japanese driver who was on the wrong side of the street. The horses became unmanageable and ran down the street toward the sea. They were stopped at Queen and Alakea streets. The horse driven by the Japanese hackman has a bad hole in his neck caused by the pole of the surrey. A severe reprimand was given the Japanese driver.

NEW YORK CAPITALIST RECALLS OLD HONOLULU.

No Hotel Accommodations Ashore—Conditions of the Natives—Remarkable Progress of the Place.

"I was in Honolulu just thirty-one years ago this fall," said Mr. J. E. Ernst, a New York capitalist at the Hawaiian hotel this morning. Mr. Ernst is just returning home per the China from an absence of two and a half years, during which time he has been around the world.

"Yes, I remember it quite distinctly," continued Mr. Ernst. "The Oracle, on which I took passage from San Francisco en route to Japan, dropped in at the then small settlement of Honolulu. Our boat anchored off shore for a couple of days and I took advantage of seeing everything that there was to see.

"The natives were quite uncivilized in those days. They took great delight in participating in a dance—I believe it was called the hula, if I remember correctly. There were no accommodations whatever on shore then—a small hut being the only excuse for a hotel. A few courageous American missionaries were struggling heroically in their work.

"You can possibly have some idea of my complete surprise when I landed in Honolulu yesterday. To find this outpost thoroughly Americanized was a source of great pleasure to me. The growth of the place has been remarkable, so much in fact that I failed to recognize the surroundings, they having been improved upon so much. The numerous new buildings and those now in the course of construction speak for the present prosperity of the country. Elsewhere things are at a standstill owing to the prevalence of hard times which seem to be universal. Hawaii's future strikes me as being very bright indeed."

CASTLE ARRIVES.

The barkentine S. N. Castle docked at the Oceanic wharf at 11:30 this forenoon, twenty-three days from San Francisco. Light wind was the cause of the long voyage. Fine weather was otherwise experienced all the way down. The Castle brought a big cargo.

Capt. Neilson, formerly master of the J. A. Cummins; L. H. Hubbard, the young son of Capt. Hubbard, and Will May, son of a Methodist preacher of Alameda, were passengers by the Castle.

TARGET DISPUTE.

The order deciding the merits of the Company B protest on Saturday's shoot will probably not be issued this afternoon. It is safe to say, however, that, from the findings of the Court of Inquiry, the points raised by the volunteers will not be sustained.

Ingenuous Peruvian Pottery.

A long, slim neck is a distinguishing feature of much of the Peruvian pottery, and nearly every vessel is ornamented with a figure of some sort, having holes to represent eyes and other openings. These afford a passage for the air forced out by the liquid when poured into the vessel. By an ingenious contrivance the air in escaping produces a sound similar to the cry of the creature represented. Thus a utensil decorated with two monkeys embracing each other, on having water poured into or from it, would give a sound like the screaming of these animals. One decorated with a bird would emit birdlike notes, while a mountain cat on one jar would mew; snakes coiled around another would hiss. The most curious that we have seen was the figure of an aged woman. When the jar was in use, her softs became audible, and tears trickled down her cheeks. The manufacturers seemed to have known all about atmospheric pressure. Dr. Le Plongeon had in his own collection a piece that demonstrated this. It represented a double-headed bird. The vessel had to be filled through a hole in the bottom, and yet in turning it over not a drop of liquid spilled, but the liquid would remain flowing out when the jar was simply inclined. —Popular Science Monthly.

SUPERVISORS OF SCHOOLS

AN INTERESTING COUNCIL OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Eighteen City Schools to Be Visited by Board Members—Tabu Taken Off Pringle—Land and Maps.

Acting in accordance with a suggestion of its president, W. O. Smith, the Board of Education has hit upon a new plan which is sure to prove beneficial to the educational department locally. There are eighteen public schools in Honolulu district and there are six members of the Board of Education. Each member has been assigned three of the city's schools, for his or her personal supervision, thus bringing the board in closer touch with the educational work.

President Smith stated that he found that the plan worked admirably with the Board of Health, of which he is president, and he saw no reason why it would not do so in the educational department.

Each member will endeavor to make a monthly visit to each one of the schools, assigned him, and acquaint himself with all the details of the workings of the institutions. He will be expected to make a monthly report to the Board on the condition of the schools and make recommendations for any changes or improvements which he may think necessary.

"The plan is a good one, I think," said President Smith at the Board meeting yesterday afternoon. "It will give the Board a clearer idea of the matters pertaining to the Honolulu schools, which may come up from time to time and will enable the Board to act with a full knowledge. While each member is held in a way responsible for the condition of the schools assigned to him, there is no interference with the work of the Inspector General or his deputy. I believe that the public instruction bureau will be greatly benefited by such an action on the part of the members of the Board."

The Board passed a resolution authorizing the reemployment of C. D. Pringle in the educational department. He will be given the next suitable vacancy.

The matter of closing the night school for the holidays was again brought up for discussion. Deputy Inspector General Scott stated that the school kept running through the holidays last year and that the teachers were unwilling that it should be closed down this year if their salaries were shut off for the same period.

President Smith thought that it was not fair that the Board should pay the salaries of the teachers during the holidays when they would not be engaged in teaching. He stated that they received $2 per night each for a couple hours' teaching. He did not see why they could not secure labor during the day time also.

The Deputy Inspector General remarked that it would work a hardship on them in case their salaries were cut off during the holidays. On motion of Mr. Bowen the matter was deferred for a week to enable Deputy Inspector General Scott to ascertain whether or not the pupils cared to attend school during the holidays.

The Board authorized the entailment of the staff of teachers of the night school from seven to five. This has been necessary on account of the number of scholars that have dropped from the roll, owing to the opening of stores in the evenings during the holidays detaching some and the lack of interest taken in the work of others.

Beretania street school is filled to overflowing again. Mr. Scott reported that a number of the children were forced to sit out on the open lanai attaching to the main school room on account of lack of space. In bad weather it was necessary to crowd them inside.

The matter was discussed thoroughly. It was the general opinion of the Board that as the Beretania street school was a central point some day there should be a large school building erected there. To obviate the present difficulties the deputy inspector-general was authorized to build an addition room on the rear of the main building and to confine the cost of such within $100.

The Board refused to accede to the request of Principal Dumas, of the Normal school, for the removal of Miss Alice Smith, teacher in the Practice school. The Teacher's Committee reported her work as being satisfactory. The Chinese Young Men's Christian Association was allowed $25 for the use of the hall for school purposes last year.

Professor W. D. Alexander reported progress on negotiations for the exchange of lots in Pearl City belonging to the Oahu Railway Company, to be used for a building site for the new Pearl City school. The Railroad company, through its attorney, J. A. Magoon, is satisfied for the exchange of other school lands and Professor Alexander was authorized to make the exchange.

Applications from B. B. Mitchell and Mrs. H. M. Davis for positions in the educational department, were read and referred to the Teachers' Committee. Both applicants are residents of the States and enclose references.

Professor Alexander stated that Mr. Finney had 500 sets of Hawaiian maps which he wished to dispose of for 50 cents a set. The Board purchased 250 sets paying $125 therefor. The money was appropriated out of the book fund which Professor Alexander stated was "quite flush."

Those present at yesterday's meeting were President Smith, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, W. A. Bowen, H. M. von Holt, Professor W. D. Rodgers, Dr. Rodgers, secretary; and Deputy Inspector General Scott.

G. A. R. ELECTION.

The George W. De Long Post, G. A. R., held its regular annual meeting last night. The following officers were chosen for the coming year: Post Commander, R. J. Greene; Senior Vice, John N. Wright; Junior Vice, Sam McKeague; Officer of the Day, W. L. Williams; Quartermaster, W. L. Eaton; Chaplain, William McCandless; Surgeon, N. B. Emerson; Officer of the Guard, Urban Conkling.

Following the election of officers came a social gathering of the veterans.

GROUP OF MARSHALS.

Marshal Brown is securing the portraits of every marshal of Hawaii. There are nine of them and he has but one or two more to get. They will be grouped in a conspicuous place on the wall of the Marshal's office. Mr. Sea was the first marshal of the city. The others are Messrs. Goodale, W. C. Parker, Col. J. M. Soper, Charles Hopkins, Charles Wilson, W. G. Ashley, E. G. Hitchcock and Arthur M. Brown.

A HEALTH TRIP.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of Mr. Charles Wilson, of the Hobron Drug company, will leave for San Francisco next Thursday on the Mariposa. Mrs. Wilson is just recovering from a severe illness and she hopes to be benefited abroad. She will visit friends and relatives along the Pacific coast and will visit a brother residing in Denver before returning.

AN OLD FRIEND.

Capt. J. Metcalf, Lloyd's agent, who has been in Honolulu for the past two weeks making an examination of the Gainsborough, left on the China today for San Francisco. Capt. Metcalf has visited Honolulu several times before but he states that he never enjoyed a visit so thoroughly as this time. He was considerably surprised at the building and other improvements in progress in Honolulu.

AN OPIUM DAY.

It was opium day in the Police Court and the Government coffers have been enriched a few hundred dollars as a result of indiscretion on the part of a half dozen Chinamen. Ah Tuck and Che Kan were fined $50 and costs for having opium in possession, Lam Wa was compelled to pay $65 and costs and Ah Chun came up to the tune of $22 for the same thing.
